

Can you Face It? (Lyrics)

Something about you makes me wonder what it is about you, that makes me wonder why.

Why I'm faced with why I care?

Why it matters for you to be there?

Something inside me tells me that I'm facing this feeling, of which I'm not quite sure

Though you're different, could it be

Somewhere deep within you, you're somewhat like me?

You've been many places, you're older than me

Through the many faces, will I be one you see?

How can I make you understand I only want to make you understand me?

Are you sorry that I try to be loving without a reason why?

If our lives were different, if they were the same,

Could you face my love for you is one that will remain?

I want you to know that all I know is that I know I love you and just the way you are

If you let me be true to you

Can you face that loving isn't hard to do?
